

The Baby Nurse, Where Babies Are Our Business

October 4, 2010

Recommendation for Solange Gonzalez

Solange has been our night nurse for about a month and has been great. We have twins but she has been solely caring for our daughter, who has some medical issues and has to be on a feeding tube at night. Solange learned the complicated and timely process of feeding her with the machine extremely quickly. She keeps meticulous records of every feeding, dose of medicine, even every diaper change.

Not only is she very thorough with the multitude of medical needs that our daughter has, Solange is fantastic with her if she is fussy, gassy, etc. She always knows how to calm her and get her to sleep and our daughter has been happy in her arms since the first day.

Trusting Solange with our baby has meant that we have been able to sleep for the first time in months which has completely changed our lives. It has meant that we have the energy during the day to do the things we need to do to take care of our twins.
