

The Baby Nurse, Where Babies Are Our Business

Amy & Matt, Washington, DC

Consuelo is everything you could ever want in a baby nurse. She is professional, skilled, caring and nurturing. It is obvious that in addition to genuinely loving babies, she has tremendous background in caring for newborns. You will feel completely comfortable with Consuelo in your home taking care of your infant. She simply “has a way” with babies – helping to soothe them and make them feel loved and comfortable in their first weeks of life. Having Consuelo in your home is easy and relaxed as that is her temperament. Amazingly, she never seems tired or restless even after a night up with the baby. In short, if you are looking for a baby nurse, I highly recommend Consuelo. If I have another child, Consuelo is the first person I will call from the delivery room!
