

The Baby Nurse, Where Babies Are Our Business

Sue & Larry, Manhattan, NY

Pat has worked with us as a caregiver and baby nurse from the time our oldest child was 9 months of age and through my younger one's infancy, up through their early school years.

She has proven to be a devoted, conscientious, responsible, caring individual - completely trustworthy. She has a very special, endearing, engaging and fun way with children. She gives 100% of herself, willing to help wherever needed. Pat is reliable, loyal and always upbeat which makes her a pleasure to have around. Her caring and supportive understanding of people is just some of what makes her such a special person and one whom anyone would be quite fortunate to have as their baby nurse.

Thanks Sue & Larry
