TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I would like to recommend both Consuelo and Elvilara (Elvie) as baby nurses. Both of them helped take care of my son, Henry, when he was born last year. Without their guidance, I don't think I would be the mother I am today. They were loving, kind, gentle and offered their advice in the most unobtrusive way. As a new mom, I was very unsure of myself and also very tired. Consuelo and Elvie put my mind at ease, allowed me to sleep and relax so that I could focus all my attention on how to be a good mom for my baby. They taught me to pay attention to my instincts, how to nurse, how to change diapers, how to bathe Henry and how to even start putting him on a mini sleep-schedule.

It is obvious they both love babies and love what they do. They have immense patience and compassion and they fit seamlessly into our household. They also have wonderful senses of humor. Henry was completely calm and happy when he was in their care. I cannot recommend Consuelo and Elvie enough and I know you will be ecstatic with their help as well.

Sincerely,
